

6 Tips for a Recruiter-friendly CV

FORMAT IS KEY

The structure (sections) and format (colours, bullet points, columns) are 50% of the battle!

Investigate different formats and choose the one that allows you to tell your personal and professional story in max 2 pages (and always send in pdf).

WHY YOU?

Your summary, expertise and career highlights are critical so that you make the right first impression.

Think about answering these two questions in 2-3 sentences: WHO am I and WHERE do I want to go next?

ACHIEVEMENTS VS EXPERIENCE

Don't describe your job responsibilities. Instead, focus on the actual results and achievements.

E.g. "Managed X clients in the Y industry" or "Achieved 90% satisfaction score"

SKILLS FOR SUCCESS

Soft skills matter as much as hard ones (technical, job related). Think about competencies you have developed - both personal and professional and put them right after your About me or Summary section.

These are key words!

PUT AN EFFORT

No room for grammar and formatting mistakes in 2022!

Add links, be mindful of too much text, add your LinkedIn profile and MOST IMPORTANTLY - be relevant to the job you are applying for.

HOBBIES & VOLUNTEERING

We all want to connect and build a human relationship. Don't skip this section, talk about your areas of interests, hobbies and specific activities.

Top performers usually have multiple interests!
